New Zoning, Extension of Willow Road, Master Plan Occupy MP Councilmen

'Professional' Buildings Sought

A Menlo Park rezoning to permit professional buildings in certain residential areas is in prospect as result of city council action Tuesday night.

Council agreed to refer to the planning commission a request by Will L. Merryman, Menlo Park realtor, that professional buildings be allowed in R-3 zones, which now permit medical buildings and multiple dwellings.

VALUES UP

Professional buildings as now defined are placed in commercial zones and property values in such areas have risen to where it is "no longer possible for office space to be made available at rentals professional men and similar users of office space can afford," Merryman said.

He told council that such proposed professional structures need not differ in appearance from the medical buildings now permitted in R-3 zones and that prohibiting professional buildings other than for medical use seems to be discriminatory." He suggested that any zoning changes make professional buildings subject to architectural control or other limitations.

OTHER ACTIONS

In other actions, the council:

1. Set next meeting for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 30, since the League of California Cities will be in session in Long Beach Oct. 24, regular date.

2. Heard a report by City Manager Cecil Longson the county streets department is planning to improve the section of Ringwood road in front of the Menlo-Atherton high school, now under construction.

3. Set public hearing for 8 p.m. Oct. 30 on proposed rezoning to R-2 of certain lots in Linfield Oaks tract.

4. Adopted a resolution putting into effect as of Oct. 1 5 per cent pay raises granted city employes by a motion two weeks ago.

5. Councilmen present—Mayor Charles P. Burgess, Wallace Brown,

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ACTION SEEN

Final plans for additional synchronized traffic lights on El Camino Real have been completed by state highway division officers in San Francisco and may be approved by authorities in Sacramento this week.

City Manager Cecil L. Longson said that the plans were completed Friday and have been forwarded to the captol.

Stanford Tells Highway Views

Stanford university, after 25 years of opposition to opening a new east-west major street across its vast campus, now is "open minded" and welcomes a full study of plans so to extend Willow road.

That fact developed Tuesday night when Alf Brandin, Stanford business manager, told the Menlo Park city council the school is making a comprehensive survey leading to a "master plan" for the institution.

ASKS MAP OKAY

Brandin appeared in connection with a request by Ray T. Lindsay of Menlo Homes, Inc., for council final approval of the Linfield Oaks tract map, which provides for taking Willow road from opposite Middlefield road and across the tract.

After hearing both Brandin and Lindsay, council approved the map with understanding Menlo Homes, Inc., would delay for a month or two undertaking any Willow road extension through its residential development.

Lindsay said his firm could not undergo any lengthy wait for settlement of the question, since it long has planned the development and wishes to proceed.

WELCOMES STUDY

Brandin said the "situation is changing in this area" and the uni-

Parking Areas Are Deleted

After months of hearings and shuttlings between city council and planning commission, the Menlo Park master plan for municipal development received final approval by council Tuesday night.

A formal resolution putting into effect previously-approved sections and those okayed Tuesday night will be before council for adoption at its next meeting Oct. 30.

Council gave final public hearing Tuesday to three remaining controversial proposals, with these results:

DELETE ALLEYWAY

1. A proposed alleyway between El Camino Real and San Antonio street, from Glenwood to Encinal avenues, was held for possible future development—meaning it again would have to be aired before the planning board for any action.

2. Held in abeyance for further planning commission investigation proposed parking areas south of Santa Cruz avenue.

3. Directed City Manager Cecil Longson to open negotiations with property owners to build a sidewalk from Roble avenue into Nealon park to provide better public access.

ATTORNEY PROTESTS

The action followed protests by Attorney John H. Sullivan, representing Mark Loughlin on whose

For The Record

Menlo Park building construction continues at its high pace. In the week ended Oct. 9, permits for $165,100 worth of construction were issued. With the $150,100 authorized in the first two days of the month, that makes $315,200 through last Monday. (See Building, Page 2).

Menlo Park's long-considered master plan now has been finally approved by city councilmen, with certain proposals held in abeyance. (Details, Page 1).

Final plans for traffic signals on El Camino Real have been sent to Sacramento for approval by state highway officials. (Story, Page 1).

As Canvass Goes On:

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE NEARS HALF OF QUOTA

About 50 per cent of Menlo Park's Community Chest quota had been reached by the first part of this week.

David Ingram, drive chairman, said yesterday that although no complete figures could be given at present owing to the fact that residential and business district solicitation is continuing, money already turned in indicates that about $9000 has been collected thus far.

Quota for the city was given at the time of the drive as $15,000. To this must be added the anticipated totals from advanced payments and contributions sent directly to county headquarters.

Business district canvassing was far from complete and a general figure could not be given at the present time, Ingram stated.

MP JOINS FREEDOM CRUSADE

'CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM' week was observed in Menlo Park this week, with hundreds of persons signing pledges. A highlight was a visit at the parking plaza yesterday afternoon of the Freedom Bell copy. Welcomes to the party of visitors were given by L. L. Johnston and City Councilman Michael L. Belangie. Above, taking part in the pledge signups are Mrs. L. Kaiser, left; George Naylor, Menlo Park chairman for the program and Lucille Evans.—Menlo Camera Shop.

Belle Haven Unit Talks of Tree Planting Program

The Menlo Park tree planting program, sewage disposal and street and crossing improvements were among problems discussed at the regular meeting of the Belle Haven Improvement association last Friday evening in city council chambers at the Menlo Park civic center.

For the price of seven dollars each the city offers to plant the trees and to remove any undesirable trees in parking strips. The plan would be handled by block or street units, with the residents on each block choosing a type of tree for uniformity.

VOLUNTARY PLAN

The plan is voluntary and any block or street interested should send their choice of tree and money to the city manager or contact him for further particulars. A selection can be made from the following trees: Modesto ash, Washington hawthorne, flowering plum, camphor and liquidamber.

A report on progress of petitioning to join the Menlo Park sanitary district was given by Major Henry McFeely, who reported he expects to have completed petitions in the

Home for a Few Days

Navy Officer Returns to Menlo Park After Voyage to Korean War Scene

Menlo Park is a good place to come home to, according to Commander R. E. Bly, USN, executive officer of a 20,000-ton transport just returned from the Inchon landing in Korea.

The commander, whose vessel, the U. S. S. General J. C. Breckenridge, returned to the United States with a load of wounded, is spending a few days' leave with his family at their home, 1785 Holly street.

The ship arrived in Inchon one day after the initial landings with an integrated unit composed of U. S. artillery, a command company, a reconaissance unit, communications personnel and 500 Republic of Korea troops. The vessel had started its adventure-filled voyage to the fighting front five days previously in Japan and was delayed en route while waiting for a typhoon to pass ahead of it, Cmdr. Bly stated.

MISSOURI THERE

"When we got there we were out of range or hearing of small arms fire ashore," he stated, "but the Missouri and several cruisers were at the scene, firing at targets several miles inland."

The officer described the landing as one with possibly more natural hazards than any made by the Marines thus far.

"The port of Inchon can only be reached after sailing up a long narrow channel, past numbers of islands which could be fortified or used as observation posts," the commander said.

"Besides, the tide rises and falls about 30 feet, complicating the problem by making the prompt withdrawal to deep water necessary for larger vessels.

"The harbor at Inchon itself is a pool which is entered through a lock," the commander explained, "and the water level is constant there. However, the marines making the invasion had to land on the more exposed and dangerous outside beaches,"

POLICE 'BIKE COLLECTION' GROWS

COLLECTION GROWS—Officer Thomas Casey of the Menlo Park police department is shown checking over the "lost, strayed or stolen" bicycles now stored at the police station. City Manager Cecil Longson stated this week that the collection of bicycles held for the legally-required one-year period soon will be large enough to call for a public auction. Meanwhile, the police urged persons whose "bikes" have been listed as missing to check with the department's civic center headquarters.

As We See It...

NATIONAL BPWC WEEK

"Women's organizations such as our BPWC have contributed greatly to the development and progress of the status of women, politically and economically . . . we must remain ever alert and vigilant to our civic responsibility."

The quotation is from a statement of Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, taking note of national Business and Professional Women's week, which will be observed in Menlo Park and the rest of the nation from Oct. 15 to 21.

We like particularly the latter part of the senator's statement, that having to do with civic responsibility. Time and again, women of the community have shown their willingness and ability to get things done, to have their voices heard by governmental bodies, to pitch in and do a civic job.

Many of the sex not only are active in business and professional life but hold down the home front, so to speak, in the dual task of being a business or professional woman and the head of a family.

That, men, is no small task.

So we join in a salute to the national organizzation of Business and Professional Women's clubs and its Menlo Park unit.

CHRISTMAS OVERSEAS MAIL

With the greatly increased number of men who will be overseas in the armed forces this Christmas it is well that the matter of gifts for them be considered now.

The postoffice department has announced that mail for men in Korea, Japan and the Pacific islands should be sent not later than Nov. 15, sooner if possible and, in the case of servicemen addresses in remote places, not later than Oct. 15.

Parcels should not weigh more than 50 pounds, according to the announcement. Care should be used in addressing, with full name, rank, serial number, branch of service and APO number. Ample space should be left for changes of address which may have to be added.

Because of the United Nations effort in Korea, a lot of youngsters who only a few weeks ago were planning on a Christmas at home will have to depend on the home folks to be remembered.

So, better get busy if you want your gifts to arrive by Christmas day.

After watching the expressions on the faces of motorists on crowded highways we can readily understand where the expression "traffic snarl" came from.

Mayor Discusses Prop. 1

By MAYOR CHAS. P. BURGESS

Proposition number 1 on the November ballot is a measure that the voter should consider carefully before stamping his "X." It carries the connotation of tax reduction, but for many citizens it would actually spell a tax increase next year, if not immediately upon passage.

Proposition Number 1 would amend the State Constitution to prohibit taxation of personal property. Thus, land and improvements would have to bear the entire burden of the property tax.

There is nothing revolutionary about this set up. The State of New York, for instance, has operated on this basis for many years. But elimination of personal property taxes of individuals will drop.

Rather, it will mean that just as in the case of other exemptions from property taxes, the tax rates will be increased to compensate for the reduction in the amount of taxable property.

It then boils down to the question of who is now paying most of the personal property taxes.

Investigation shows that the home owner is assessed only a nominal amount for his personal property, and that retailers, wholesalers, manufacturers and public utilities are heavily assessed on their merchandise, materials and equipment.

In Menlo Park, for example, where we have comparatively little industry, taxable secured property other than public utility, consists only 5½ per cent of personal property, whereas 60 per cent of the taxable utility property is personal. In the City of Vernon in Los Angeles County, which is largely inductrial, 53 per cent of all taxable property is personal. In San Mateo County as a whole 16½ per cent of the assessed valuation is personal property.

I would not become particularly concerned if the choice to be made by the voters was whether or not all the property tax load were to be placed upon land and improvements, upping the tax rate an average of 20 per cent in this county.

However, this proposition, were it to carry, would prevent the collection of property taxes on personal property this year, although the budgets of our cities, counties and school districts have already been set, and the money allocated. The loss in revenue to the City of Menlo Park would be $11,350 this year.

Were the propsition to pass, we would next year adopt a special recreation fund tax of 15 cents instead of paying for recreation from the general fund, and thus solve the city's fiscal problem. But this year we would be in a serious predicament unless we enacted a sales tax or some other special tax which could be collected immediately.

The school districts and the county would be in more serious straits for they would have no way of recouping the loss from this year's budgeted revenue. School districts would also lose part of their bonded indebtedness capacity as a result of the loss of part of their assessed valuation.

Because I believe that it is only fair to tax tangible personal property along with real estate, and because of the chaos passage of Proposition number 1 would create among school districts, I am voting "no" on the measure.

The Veterans' Guide

Home, Schooling Dual Benefits Are Available

The same World War II veteran may be eligible for both the low-cost home or farm financing benefits and the educational assistance offered by the state of California, according to Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer, San Mateo county.

A number of veterans in San Mateo county have hesitated to apply for state aid in completing their studies for fear that they would thereby forfeit their right to obtain "Cal-Vet" farm or home financing later on, Granger said.

There is some reason for this misunderstanding," he explained. "Prior to 1946, veterans were not allowed to make use of both types of state benefit. But the legislature took action in that year to correct the situation. The same state certificate of eligibilty will serve for both benefits in the case of most World War II veterans."

The only exceptions are those veterans who did not enter the armed services until the last part of 1946. While eligibility for the farm and home purchase plan is open to a veteran who entered World War II service at any time prior to Jan. 1, 1947, the educational assistance provisions of state law require at least 90 days of service prior to that date.

The veteran must either be a native of California or must have been a resident of this state at the time he entered military service. World War I veterans are still eligible for the farm and home purchase plan, provided they meet the requirements.

Application forms and information are available to interested veterans at the veterans service office, courthouse, Redwood City.

MP Firm's Products Get Europe Showing

A showing of leading American design in home furnishings and related fields in principal cities of Europe and Great Britain next year will include two exhibits from Menlo Park.

Two casement gauzes designed by Michael L. Belangie of Menlo Textiles will be among the 500 items in the showings, it was learned this week. Belangie's products were selected by the Museum of Modern Art for inclusion in the exhibition, entitled "Design for Use, U. S. A."

The same Menlo Park products have been selected for showings in Detroit and Chicago. The casements, of woven materials, are designed for covering large windows in homes.

Fire Prevention Week

This is National Fire Prevention week.

Remaining features of the observance here include the annual demonstration of firefighting skills, to be presented at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the drill tower at Menlo Park fire district headquarters, 1077 Merrill street.

Citizens are invited to visit any of the four stations of the district, which are maintaining "open house."

Too, firemen have visited each of the 11 schools of the district during the past three days and several groups of pupils have toured the stations.

The RECORDER heartily endorses the firemens' efforts to call your attention to the fact that the danger of fire is always present, and urges all citizens to make every week of the year a "Fire Prevention Week" of their own.

Here GREW THE ROOTS OF FREEDOM

The right to worship where and as we choose is only one phase of the liberty we Americans prize, and for this and all of our other freedoms we owe a debt to Christianity.

Religious convictions, woven into our Constitution, gave strength to our pioneers. Reliance upon God, and fidelity to the Church, made our forefathers brave, patient and determined. In such faith was America born.

Through the Church and by authority of the Bible, Christianity says that all human beings have worth—that each one has a place—that man's first responsibility is to his Creator.

The Church is the symbol of this belief—the steadfast instrument through which it is worked out. Therefore the Church deserves our support. It stands for decency and order. It and the Church school are the safest places for our children.

Choose your Church—give it part of your time and means—participate in some of its activities—and you will find life taking on a new and richer meaning.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A veteran of four years' service, Pearch was taken to a military hospital in Japan, from which he wrote his parents advising them that he had been wounded in the arm.

Pearch is a graduate of Palo Alto high school. His brother, Clarence Pearch, high-point batter in this summer's Menlo Park Industrial league softball play, has been called to active service with the marines and participated in the landings at Inchon.

Sanitary Board Takes Easements

Menlo Park Sanitary district trustees Monday night accepted four easements for sections of the proposed interceptor line from the veterans hospital to Coleman avenue as a step toward completion of their sewage tratment plant and lines leading to it.

As another step, the board awarded a bid for a skimming unit to the Jeffrey Manufacturing company of Ohio, on receipt of a suggestion telegraphed by board secretary Lawrence H. Cook. Cook visited the plant and inspected plans for the device while on a business trip to the east coast.

Cedric Webster, district superintendent reported that the first contract for 30,000 yards of earth and rock fill at the plant site had been completed. More fill is now being delivered under terms of a second contract.

The trustees also accepted maps of Oakwood Manor and Menlo Gardens subdivisions, but rejected a map of the Linfield Oaks area pending payment of bills.

Board members also took the state loyalty oath, administred by Menlo Park Police Judge E. J. Ryan.

PA Motorist Cited For Drunk Driving

Who Runs America?
the Congress? the President?
OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today—keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs
American Farm Bureau Federation
National Grange
Veterans of Foreign Wars
National Conference of Catholic Charities
American Protestant Hospital Association
American Legion
National Association of Small Business Men
United States Chamber of Commerce
National Association of Retail Grocers
National Retail Dry Goods Association
American Bar Association

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that

Christmas Seal Volunteers Sought

A complete re-activation of all previous volunteers and organizations that annually assist in the sale of tuberulosis Christmas seals is sought by Mrs. Leonard MacWilliams of Burlingame, general chairman of volunteers for the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health association.

Preliminary reports of availability by individual volunteers and groups must be in association offices at San Mateo by next Tuesday, said Mrs. MacWilliams, in order to permit the prompt assignment of duties and provision of necessary supplies.

Emphasizing that an all-out effort will be made to put the annual sale of Tuberculosis christmas seals in this county on a "quick-finish" basis, the chairman of volunteers declared that the association wants to conclude the sale with a minimum amount of work from each volunteer.

POLITICAL RALLY

Kathleen Norris and Clarie McVooy are scheduled to speak at a meeting at the Menlo Park city council chambers at 3 p.m. Monday afternoon, in behalf of Richard M. Nixon, Republican candidate for the U. S. senate.

Park Expansion Plans Discussed

General plans for future development of the Burgess park recreation area were discussed at last week's meeting of the Menlo Park recreation commission, which also witnessed the introduction of Commissioner Don Rodeen, newly appointed from the Belle Haven area.

The discussion was on a general level and no definite plans for any project were made, Recreation Director Fred Parsons, acting secretary for the board, said this week.

Landscaping plans for the part of the 26-acre, centrally located recreation plant not already developed were talked over.

A letter from a resident urging the establishment of an archery range at Burgess park rather than at Nealon park was read at the meeting.

NAVY COMMANDER

The commander has been a navy man since 1928, when he joined the naval reserve. Graduating from Annapolis in 1934, he later took flight training for both heavier and lighter-than-air craft.

He first became acquainted with Menlo Park in 1942, when he was stationed at Moffett field as operations officer of a blimp reconnaissance unit. Later, he was commanding officer of the outfit.

Transferred to the U. S. S. Mississippi in 1944, the commander served as navigation officer aboard that vessel during the Palau, Leyte gulf second battle of the Phillippine sea and Okinawa campaigns.

Returning from wartime duty after the surrender of Japan, Cmdr. Bly served as an officer of the navy's bureau of aeronautics and was stationed at Akron, Ohio, until Oct., 1949, when he became executive officer of the transport.

The officer's family includes his wife, Frances and daughters Carol, 9, in the fifth grade at Hillview school; Diana, 12, seventh grade at Fremont school and Barbara, six months old.

Far Eastern Economist To Address Lions Club

Wayne Mackenzie Stevens, expert on far eastern economics, will speak at weekly dinner meeting of the Menlo Park Lions club at Bertrand's at 7 p.m. Oct. 18.

Mr. Stevens, who has a long record of government service, went to Korea in July, 1949, as economic commissioner for the ECA. Last spring and summer he visited many Far Eastern countries for the state department far easternconference in Tokyo, exploring new market opportunities.

Sullivan said Loughlin has tentative plans to develop the land and that placing a 10-foot or a smaller sidewalk would detract from the property's value.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess proposed the negotiations with a number of property owners as a move to "get the best deal we can" for a new access with the originally planned walk meanwhile removed

7. Appointed Beverly Holmes, 1015 Henderson avenue, to the city personnel board. A fifth member is to be named under a new ordinance. Already members are John Huss, Augustus Locke and Lyle B. Moore.

He said past objections have been based to much extent on already heavy traffic on the 9000-acre campus.

The school's own survey, he said, will last from four to six months and will be the basis for a vast master plan. He said the persons making the survey could turn their immediate attention to the Willow road planning.

Don C. Rodeen, 1033 Ringwood avenue, was introduced by councilman M. L. Belangie as the new recreation commissioner representing the Belle Haven area.

Two safety proposals were made by the members: The making of the intersection at Hollyburne and Bay Road more safe for pedestrians, and signs to keep the traffic flowing the proper way on the divided street of Hetch Hetchy, especially in front of the Belle Haven school.

STREET WORK

President W. B. Peard reported that the county would enlarge and improve Ringwood avenue adjacent to the new high school property by the time the school is completed and that the remainder of the street would be improved in the near future.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess was a guest at the meeting.

The week's activities will be inaugurated Sunday at 11 a.m. with a "brunch" at the Marie Antoinette hotel.

RADIO PROGRAM

On Monday, at 9:30 a.m., officers of the unit will be heard on the program, "A Date with Blanche" presented from Palo Alto radio station KIBE. Participation in the program and the club's fund raising project for the week have been arranged by Miss Beverly Clark.

Special posters featuring the theme, "Measure Up to Full Partnership," will be placed on display at business houses throughout the city.

Welcome to fellow columnist (and we use the word lightly) Marlene Trouslot who just started writing "Sequoia Slants" for the Redwood City Tribune. We hope Marlene has as much fun with her job as we have with ours.

Before we go we would like to say a word or two about the election at Sequoia last week. Never as long as this reporter can remember, has the vote been so low. We don't know the exact number, but we do know it was well below a third of the student body. The commissioner of school spirit is an office which will be important to Sequoia. It is too bad the students don't know or care enough to vote in as important an election as this.

ART EXHIBIT—Oil paintings by Mrs. Jean Hall and watercolors by members of the Little House sketch class will be placed on display at the Menlo Park branch library Oct. 15. Above, Mrs. Hall is shown with her work entitled "Spring Grazing," a Nevada landscape which is one of about 20 paintings which will be placed on display by the artist.

Sequoia Citizens Offer Proposals To School Board

The monthly meeting of the Sequoia advisory committee was held Oct. 9, in the school library with about 50 members in attendance.

Sub-committee meetings have been held during the month and while most of them are still in the planning stage, recommendations to the board of trustees were presented by the sub-committees on school building and public relations.

The building committee recommended that the board consider rearrangement of the athletic field at the San Carlos-Belmont site in order to enlarge the baseball diamond, provide for more parking space and to allow the picher's box to face north.

They also recommend that a study be made and competitive bids asked for wrought iron or steel hand railings instead of the aluminum now planned which the committee feels may be more expensive.

The public relations sub-committee has recommended that the board consider enlarging the monthly newsletter now sent parents of Sequoia students by Dr. Clyde Ogden, Superintendent, to include news items, stories and feature articles.

Belle Haven School Rooms Near Completion

Two of eight classrooms now being completed at Belle Haven school should be ready for occupancy Oct. 16, Ravenswood school district trustees learned Monday night.

Contractors had hoped to complete all eight rooms by Monday of next week, Superintendent Stanley O. Schnepple told the board, but unexpected delays in receiving state approval have been encountered.

The board agreed to hire a landscape architect for the Belle Haven plant on completion of the school's administrative unit.

Nadine Conner to Sing In Stanford Concert

Nadine Conner, Metropolitan opera soprano, will be presented by the Associated Students of Stanford university in the Memorial hall on the Stanford campus Monday, Oct. 16, at 8:15 p.m.

MP WOMEN'S CLUB OUTLINES PROJECTS

Placing themselves on record as opposed to Proposition 6 on the November ballot and standing by in attendance of "Crusade for Freedom" scrolls being signed at the Menlo Park branch of the Bank of America have been recent activities of the Menlo Park Women's club.

The resolution placing the organization on record as opposed to the constitutional amendment was passed at an Oct. 4 meeting in East Palo Alto.

The garden section of the club met Tuesday at the Arden avenue home of Mrs. Kenneth Baldwin for discussion of the year's program.

PRESBYTERIAN CLUB SETS BENEFIT DINNER

The faith and life commission of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church Couples' club will serve a dinner of Italian food from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Oct. 13 at the Parish hall of Holy Trinity church.

The hall was provided for use of the club inasmuch as the new Presbyterian church still is under construction.

Funds derived from the dinner will be used by the commission to complete roof repairs on buildings of the Ming Quong orphanage in Los Gatos. Dinner donations will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for chidren.

TEA TO INAUGURATE SYMPHONY SEASON

Plans are complete for the introductory tea inaugurating the Sequoia Symphony association's second season.

The tea will be held this Sunday from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Irving Kestersons' Atherton home.

Mrs. Francis B. Tinney is chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. C. L. Brown and Mrs. W. J. Plant of San Carlos, Mrs. Dan Robertson of Atherton, Mrs. Max Barnhart and Mrs. Paul Leigh of Redwood City, Mrs. C. A. Burley of Menlo Park and Mrs. William Worthington, Jr. of Woodside.

Carol Woodhams Peters, who appeared with the symphony last season, will sing and Jose Cortez, who will be soloist at the Oct. 27-28 concert, will present several piano selections.

Tickets will be on sale at Joe Prein's radio shop on Santa Cruz avenue.

HOMECOMING PLANS MADE BY ALUMNI

Plans for participation in the annual homecoming of Menlo School and College were made by alumni of the Bay area at their fall dinner meeting yesterday in San Francisco, according to F. V. Scarpulla, president of the San Francisco Menlo Alumni club.

The 1950 homecoming of the college has been set for Saturday, Nov. 4, and many of the 1500 alumni living in the Bay area are to take an active part in the plans for the day.

"They say cooking's fun with an automatic gas range"

Thinking of buying a new range? Have your dealer demonstrate these features of the modern Automatic Gas Ranges: automatic clock control, oven heat control, automatic burner, broiler, oven lighting, self-acting valves, large insulated oven, smokeless broilers, non-tipping shelves, balanced doors, non-rust and non-clog dual purpose burners. Best of all, amazing economy. Remember, folks, it's fun to cook with gas.

Californians cook cheaper, because P. G. and E. rates are among the nations lowest; take only 3¢ of the household dollar.

SHOPPING WITH SHIRLEY

Remember that last-minute Christmas shopping rush? And remember the hole it knocked in your December budget—and January's and February's, too—when you bought all those things in one splash?

Looking over the stores we have in Menlo Park now, one realizes that this is the time to start doing that Santa Claus job—right now—even though Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving have yet to come.

The stores are just full of wonderful things now, and it would be so easy—and your pocketbook wouldn't even notice it—to start picking up a toy here, a trinket there while you're going on your regular shopping rounds anyway.

By December 24 you'll have a sackfull like the jauntiest Santa ever!

Just look at things you can pick up now without ever taking an extra step!

LOOKING BACKWARD

Menlo Park Was News in 1890's

This is the twenty-fifth of a series of articles dealing with Menlo Park area history.

Before the turn of the century, when Menlo Park was still a village, events of more than ordinary interest to the inhabitants were happening here.

These events were news then, just as they would be today.

Though the hamlet did not have a newspaper of its own, stories of interest to those living here was carried in the county's first newspaper, the San Mateo County Times-Gazette, founded in 1859 and printed in Redwood City.

By 1890, after the building of the many great estates of the south county area, the volume of news from here was sufficient to justify a local correspondent for the paper, circulation of which was countywide.

The column, author of which remains unknown, was headed:

What is Going on in Our Neighboring Aristocratic Burg

Under this another smaller headline would be set dealing with a different item each week.

Though most of the items were of purely local interest, the correspondent occasionally found an item of even national importance. In the issue of May 24, 1890, we read:

"A Washington letter says: Senator Stanford had arranged to give a grand dinner for President and Mrs. Harrison, the members of the cabinet, their wives and other distinguished visitors. Since he has held his high office, President Harrison has never yet accepted an invitation to any dinner, and this would have been a marked compliment to the California Senator who expected handsomely to entertain his guests, for which purpose he had ordered a lavish supply of fruits, etc., but on account of his brother's death the Senator is much affected, consequently the invitations to the dinner have been recalled."

This was news of national interest. Who the president dines with—or doesn't dine with—is news even today.

And one is tempted to guess what the "etc." mentioned was, when one learns that a few years later some Stanford students, in one of their earlier and more famous pranks, are supposed to have made off with a collection of rare wines reserved by Senator Stanford for the President's grand dinner.

WEDDINGS

Too, the nameless scribe, though sometimes a little too unspecific when dealing with persons' names, could treat his news with a sense of humor. On February 21, 1891, he wrote:

"Marriage bells are again tinkling in the distance. The seekers after connubial bliss are coming boldly to the front and several marriages are on the tapis. We hear that some are already engaged and some would be if they could. One bachelor is conspicuously energetic in arranging and

GETTING TOGETHER

Our Author Neighbors In Spotlight

By EDNA LAMOORE WALDO

Please WRITE your questions, suggestions or ideas to Mrs. Waldo in care of RECORDER, Menlo Park.

LOTS OF NEWS about our distinguished neighbors . . . past and present. Author John Steinbeck has a play opening in New York October 18, a Rodgers and Hammerstein musical, no less. Its title, BURNING BRIGHT, is from that Blake quotation, "Tiger tiger, burning bright, in the forests of the night." I never did know what that meant and neither do curious New Yorkers at the moment. In the cast is Barbara Bel Geddes.

Olivia de Havilland, sometimes of Saratoga, is going to play Juliet on Broadway this fall. There was some long dickering about money but all seems to be set now.

When I mentioned a few weeks ago that the California historical novel, THE JUBILEE TRAIL by Gwen Bristow, was a best seller to the tune of about 500,000, some demon proofreader made it come out a mere 50,000.

(Editor's note: Cheating proofreader, caught red-handed, herewith returns the extra zero: 0.)

Even conservative estimates of the book's success . . . which have included book club distribution . . . count up an actual 450,000. When books do sell, HOW they sell!

DURANTE SAYS:

As Jimmy Durante would say, "Everybody wants to get into the act" when it comes to the new fall youth books. The best of them, however, are by old hands at the game who recognize the growing need for realism and that note of romance which has been too long absent from teen stories. Mature people who haven't read any youth publications since the Elsie books and Robinson Crusoe would be amazed to see some of the current offerings.

Likewise, older writers, trying the youth book for the first time, may come up with "dated" material.

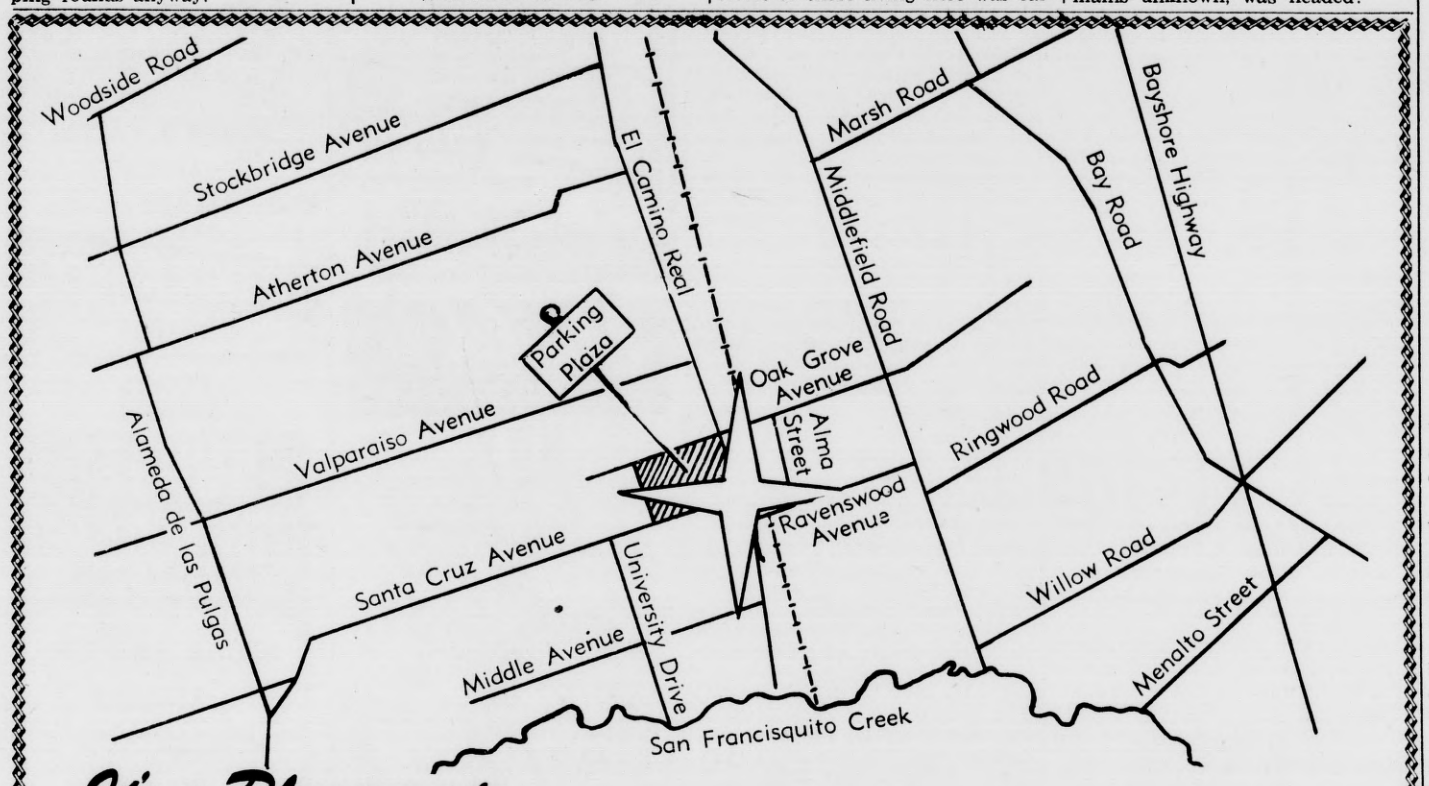

Youngsters like to read a few years ahead of their actual age, and so high school people will enjoy stories about college boys and girls. I've just read . . . and with considerable pleasure, believe me . . . two of the best youth novels.

PACK TRIP

In HOOFBEATS ON THE TRAIL by Vivian Breck of Berkeley, we have the beautiful, none too familiar locale of Kings Canyon national park, where the young heroine takes a summer pack trip under trail club auspices. The author, herself an experienced mountain climber, has also written HIGH TRAIL, about another vacation near Mt. Whitney.

Displays Watches On Anniversary

To mark the second anniversary of their jewelry store at 724 Santa Cruz avenue, Guy E. Alterton & Son this Saturday will have on display more than 300 Hamilton watches. The occasion will mark the first time such a complete display of watches has ever been shown through a retail outlet anywhere through courtesy of Hamilton Watches.

The display includes watches ranging in price from $49.50 to about $2900.00.

Manufacturing jewelers, making pieces to order in their own shop as well as handling nationally famous lines, the store opened for business on October 9, 1948.

RED

That roaring red machine you've seen around town lately is not an ancient fire truck called up from the reserves. Just to satisfy curiosity, it's Lee Ludke's delivery truck and it's a 1923 Dodge.

Those Hollywood Dolls at Preuss pharmacy are really something. Each one is perfection and would certainly go to the heart of any little girl. They make a handsome collection, too, in one of those cabinets especially designed for them—a pretty background for the dolls and a good way to start Small Daughter keeping things neat.

And remember Preuss has a tremendous line of perfumes and beauty aids, too.

• • • •

For clothes for the small fry, you can't do better than in Mary's Stork to Ten shop on Santa Cruz. Beautiful things . . . and sturdy, too.

• • • •

For children's furniture, drop in at Harry's Juvenile shop on the highway . . . The finest kinds of table-and-chair sets, toy chests, etc., and lots to choose from.

• • • •

For TOYS, there are lots of places to go. Preuss, Mary's Stork to Ten, Harry's Juvenile, Shreve & Burgess (the new sports store), and the variety stores—Van Epern's, Starin's, Sprouse-Reitz. You'll find everything among their selections.

• • • •

And you can order that bike—or trike—for Junior now at the Menlo Bike and Key shop. Right on the highway near Oak Grove avenue . . . handy the next time you go to the post office.

• • • •

For the grownups on your list—and they're often the biggest problems of all—stop in at Frane's: tools for the menfolk who like to putter, and for the ladies the most wonderful assortment of gift items; really outstanding.

• • • •

At Stevens you'll find the perfect bit of frilly lingerie for Sister Sue, and for Aunt Sally there are luncheon sets, guest towels, etc.

• • • •

You'll find an enticing array of lingerie at Pearl's shop, too, and at Lucelle's.

• • • •

For books, the easiest and always welcome gift, go to Browning's, next door to Menlo Square market. A good selection for young and for old.

• • • •

For those gifts for Your House, you and Daddy might go together some Saturday to look at McCoy's furniture store (luscious Early American things, especially) and Earl Gibson's (appliances).

• • • •

Or if you are the kind who love to do things for yourself, see the wonderful lines of unpainted furniture at Ludke's Menlo Paint store. He really has some beautiful pieces that you can easily finish yourself, and Lee Ludke will be glad to tell you how to do it so it will fit in perfectly with your other furniture.

• • • •

And speaking of doing things yourself, the whole family can have fun making gifts with the leathercraft and ceramic-painting supplies you'll find at Menlo Park Arts and Leathercraft on Santa Cruz near the depot.

• • • •

And while you've got Daddy out this Saturday, show him the special anniversary display of Hamilton watches at Guy Alterton's jewelry store: the complete line of Hamiltons from the simplest to the most expensive. More than 300 watches all brought together in one beautiful display!

• • • •

If the watch display puts Daddy in the right frame of mind, you'll find more in this line—jewelry, watches and silverware—across the street at Arthur Rake's.

• • • •

And don't forget the most important person on your list: Daddy himself. For jackets, shirts, ties, bathrobes, etc., you can't do better than Van de Sande.

Yes, now's the time to start doing your Christmas shopping the easy way: right here at home while you're doing your normal day-to-day rounds.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Simple Adjustment, New Details Give New Life to Old Clothes

By Ertta Haley

AT THE BEGINNING of each new season, before they buy any clothing, smart women check over their wardrobe. Many of last years' clothes are not as hopeless as they may have thought, once they take another look at them. Weary dresses and blouses can become favorites with just a bit of simple adjustment or the addition of some interesting detail.

You don't have to be expert to give new life to clothes, either at designing or with the needle. Clever remodeling depends on study and analysis of the clothes, and after that it's usually only simple needlework to put your ideas to work.

One important thing you should realize about making over clothes: don't put work and thought on fabrics which are badly worn. Unless the material will take you through a season or several months of wear it will not be worth remodeling.

You can, however, use parts of clothing which are not worn in putting new touches into other old clothes provided it's done with taste, care and proper styling. Fabrics should harmonize both in color and texture.

Holes and worn spots can be rewoven; if this proves impractical, they can often be camouflaged. Some faded materials can be dyed if the fabric will take it.

Some dresses are perfectly correct as to style, but they do not fit, and as such they represent a loss to you. Many times a simple adjustment will fit the dress to you beautifully and enable you to get the wear required.

Give Dresses a Complete Analysis

Start at the top of your dress and analyze it point by point before doing any remodeling. Then you'll know exactly what needs to be done, and will have an estimate of the time, material and work necessary to making it over.

Do the shoulders look smooth and well-fitted? Bunchy tops, heavy padding and gathered sleeve tops are out of fashion. If the garment is tight around the shoulders, see if the elimination of padding and readjustment can make the garment comfortable and sleek.

Does the garment have the new sleeve styles? There are many types of sleeves at present. For daytime wear you can have a sleeve that comes an inch or so above the elbow; another kind is the three quarter type, and still another is the slender sleeve that is bracelet length.

Is the neckline flattering and new? Necklines of dresses should fit smoothly. Collars are very dramatic this season, and may be used to alter the neckline.

Does the bodice fit? This should fit smoothly and easily, without being too large. Remove fussy details for fashionable look.

Is the waistline right? Removing tucks or putting them in can easily adjust this. If too tight, you'll planning his departure from single blessedness and almost now imagines himself a benedict. We suspect however that he has not yet obtained the consent of the object of his worship . . . However, the more marriages, the merrier. We wish them all joy 'seriatim in toto.' "

HISTORY

That item had repercussions. As the writer explains in the March 7 issue of the paper:

"Apropos of the anticipated marriages spoken of in the issue of February 21st, is seems that there are more projected marriages in Menlo Park than your correspondent dreamed of even in his wildest dreams. Every other young man he meets assails him with vituperative epithets, assumes a belligerent attitude and heaps contumely on his devoted head; while those who are silent on the subject wear a guilty look and eye him suspiciously as though the paragraph referred to each one individually. He has endeavored to explain and exculpate himself singly and collectively but the majority roar around like a Scriptural lion and like Rachel refuse to be comforted. Your correspondent has committed an unconscionable offense and is willing to cry 'peccavi' as it was unintentional."

Other items, unimportant in themselves but of vast interest to the participants, made up the bulk of the column. For instance:

"Senator and Mrs. Stanford are expected at Palo Alto in a few days. The servants have received orders to have the house in readiness.

"Several ladies of the Presbyterian church have gone to Santa Clara to assist the ladies of that place to entertain a delegation of ministers and missionaries.

PRETTY PROTECTION

Weather protection and fashion appeal are combined in this trim new fall coat of cotton corduroy. The cotton corduroy is Zelan treated to ward off the elements with a water-repellent finish. The coat is designed with a five-piece detachable belt and dolman sleeves, and there is a matching beret. The outfit was designed by Lawrence of London.

"One of our carpenters went to one of our fine residences to do some work, was attacked by their dog and came out with a few scratches and badly torn clothes this week.

"Recently one of our young men took a stroll by moonlight and was sitting on the rail of the bridge quietly smoking, near Palo Alto, when a good-sized coyote came out from under the trees and took a survey of the intruder."

It can be seen that the writer knew how to escape the pitfall of repeating a possible "fish story." He didn't say exactly how big the coyote was.

OOPS! WE SLIPPED

From Guy C. Miller, Palo Alto city historian, we learn that the original land grant of Don Rafael Soto was not, as we said Sept. 28, subdivided and sold mainly to Henry W. Seale and Captain John Greer. Soto's daughter, Maria Luisa Soto, became Greer's second wife.

Captain Greer sold most of the acreage to Seale and it was from Seale—not Seale and Greer, as we said—that Hopkins purchased the 697-acre University Park site. Hopkins later bought an additional 40 acres from Greer.

Also, according to Miller, Palo Alto was incorporated in 1894 rather than 1893.

The name of the town was changed from University Park in 1892—two years before, rather than at the time of, incorporation.

GETTING TOGETHER

Our Author Neighbors

in a professor's family, does not want to go to college.

Winning the privilege of the two months trip before she has to make up her mind, she finds many new friends, including a fine, wholesome young man, and unexpected capabilities in herself.

Any live young person will like this but especially those interested in nature study, horses, or photography. Illusions are by Hubert Buel, well known San Francisco painter. The map end papers in the book will, I suspect, send a lot of folks Kings Canyon way next summer.

HAS EVERYTHING

And, shades of Louisa M. Alcott, you should see this next one, for aviation enthusiasts! Written by Gertrude E. Mallette, author of many career books for girls, CLEAR TO LAND has everything . . . an unusual background, adventure, mystery.

The locale is an isolated California ranch which sounds a bit like the Pinnacles country . . . a national monument near Soledad that not too many folks around here seem to know about.

At any rate, it belongs to an Army Air Corps general who also flies a personal plane; his wife has a plane, his son has one, and daughter Selby, just home from an eastern college, has her own helicopter!

Selby's best beau, a young major, despises helicopters, so of course it is with hers that the girl rescues him from a crash on the rocks. Her girl guest is a jounralism major at Stanford who, although she is also an "army brat", persists in snooping out mysteries which turn out to be highly restricted defense matters.
